Graz, October 31st 2006

The Homeless World Cup is glad to confirm, that the Barka Foundation and the representatives of its sports section "Sportowego Stowarzyszenia"

Mr. Jacek Kaczmarek / Mr. Roman Bogusławski officially organise the streetfootball-team to represent Poland at the Homeless World Cup 2007 in Copenhagen, Denmark, July 2007. The Homeless World Cup supports the Barka Foundation as its main partner in Poland to develop a Polish Street League for social inclusion and to organise in the future the Polish National Team in a sports structure, that reaches out to as many players and social projects possible.

The main partners of the Homeless Worldcup is the International Network of Streetpapers (INSP), the UNO commissioner for sports - Adolf Ogi, the UEFA charity fund as well as many companies and football clubs such as Manchester United. (see homepage: www.homelessworldcup.org).

The Homeless World Cup took already successfully place in Cape Town, South Africa 2006, Edinburgh, Scotland 2005, Gothenburg, Sweden 2004 and Graz, Austria 2003. Amongst the participants were the national teams of more than 48 nations like Australia, Brazil, Hong Kong, Denmark, England, Ireland, Italy, Namibia, Poland, Russia, Scotland, Serbia, Slovakia, Spain, South Africa, Sweden, Ukraine, USA, Wales.

The central agenda of the Homeless World Cup is to promote social integration through sports and to create inventive strategies in fighting homelessness and poverty worldwide.

With best wishes to the organisers and players
